

Lasindu Themiya Anuththara

Software Engineer Intern

PROFILE

I'm a dedicated software engineering student and co-founder of WorkMate, currently pursuing a Higher National Diploma in Software Engineering. I specialize in building end-to-end software systems across web, mobile, and IoT domains, with a focus on robust backend architectures, scalable codebases, and cloud-native design. I'm aiming to become a backend-oriented fullstack engineer, combining strong server-side foundations with solid frontend skills to build efficient and user-centric applications.
